Tunic dress with "Citrus Trees"

Finished Measurement: : 44cm(W)、85cm(L)
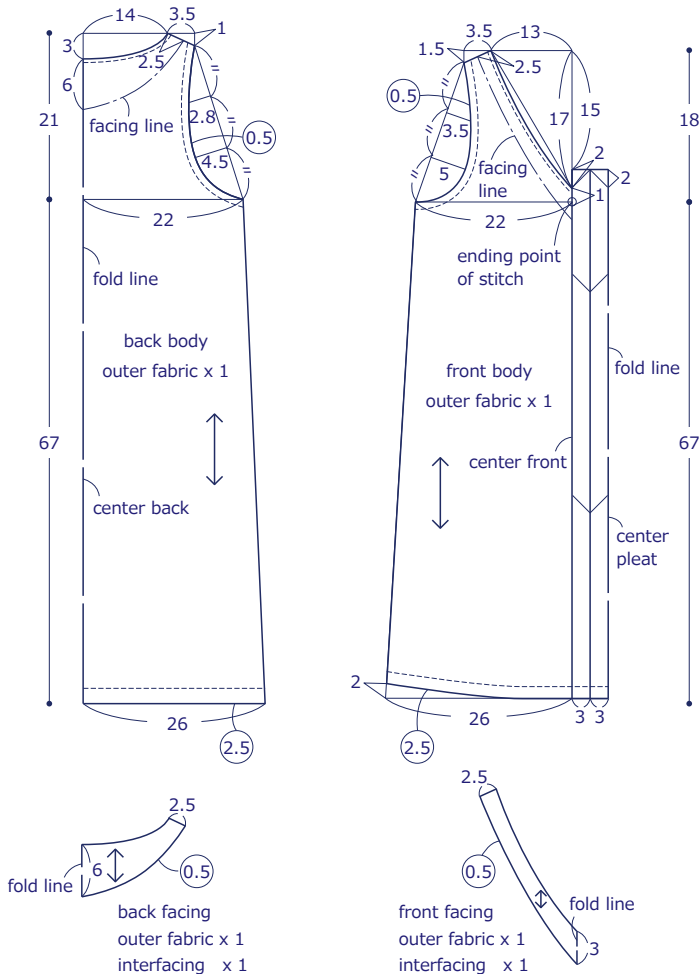

Materials

□ Outer fabric: 110cm(W) x 2m
□ Interfacing: 30cm x 80cm
□ 1 button of 2cm diameter
Fabric shown for this sample Outer body:
FOLK MODERN (Citrus Trees) JG41600-2 (C)

cutting layout

numbers of circles denote seam allowance. Cut all pieces including seam allowances.

All measurements are in centimeters (cm).   All are serged seams.

back body
outer fabric x 1

center back

fold line

facing line

front body
outer fabric x 1

center front

fold line

center pleat

ending point of stitch

back facing
outer fabric x 1
interfacing   x 1

fold line

front facing
outer fabric x 1
interfacing   x 1

fold line

kokka-fabric.com

INSTRUCTIONS

4. Attach the facing to neckline.

interfacing
back
front
1cm
Make little snips into the seams

3. Sew shouder seams

1. Sew the neckline facing

Facing pieces should be interfaced.
Match them up at shoulder seams and stitch. Serge its outer seam, fold 0.5cm inward and stitch.

back facing (wrong side)
machine-sewn
interfacing
0.2cm edge-stitched seam
front facing (wrong side)
fold 0.5cm

2. Fold the front body piece in half, then sew 2cm along the center front.

center front
front body (wrong side)
2cm
ending point of stitch
open →
center pleat
(right side)
loose pleats

6. Make armholes

Make a double-fold bias binding tape with the same fabric.
Use it to neaten armhole edges.
(bias binding tape: 1.2cm x 1cm)

armhole (right side)
0.5cm
1cm
armhol (wrong side)

5. Sew side seams of the dress

7. Hem the dress.

Fold hem up by 1cm twice

(wrong side)
0.2cm
1.5cm
fold 1cm

8. Stich along the neckline and attach a button

0.2cm edge-stitched seam
1cm   button