Center

6. Attach the zipper

Align the edge of the zipper with the edge of the bias binding strip.

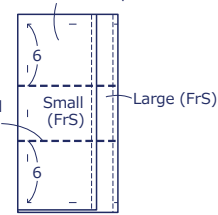

① With the front sides facing each other, layer the center of the zipper and center of the top end of the lining fabric. Sew together using half-backstitch.

② Secure the edges with blind stitches.

④ Fold the fusible quilt batting in half. Cover the end of the zipper and sew.

③ Following the previous steps ① and ②, make the small pocket.

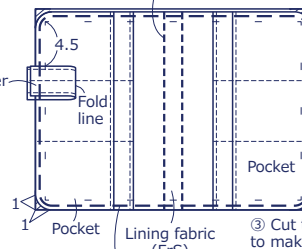

④ Layer ② and ③ and sew the partitions.

• Repeat the process on the opposite side.

② With the front sides facing outside, fold in half and apply stitches on the pocket opening.

5. Make the main portion

① With the front sides facing outside, place the outer fabric and lining fabric together. Baste it so that outer fabric C and stiff interfacing of the lining fabric are well aligned. Apply concealed stitches on both sides of outer fabric C.

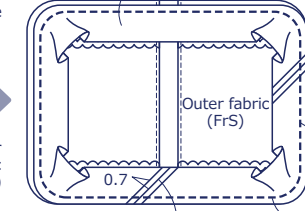

② Layer the pocket and folded pen holder and baste.

④ With the front sides facing each other, make a loop (86cm) of bias binding strip.

③ Cut the corner to make it round.
